Appunti del Parroco: (From the Pastor's Notebook:)

A Letter from Msgr. Joseph F. Schaedel, V.G.

Dear Parishioners,

March, the month of Saint Joseph is here. Among other titles, we honor Saint Joseph as the Patron of the Universal Church. And so we invoke his intercession for the family of the Church. Most of our founding families at Holy Rosary were from Sicily; Saint Joseph is the principal patron of Sicily and the secondary patron of Italy. (Saint Francis of Assisi is the principal patron of Italy.)

Looking ahead a couple weeks, the Italian tradition of Saint Joseph's Table continues here at la Chiesa del Santo Rosario. Lumen Christi School (a private Catholic elementary school located here at Holy Rosary) helps us keep the tradition going. The delicious Italian food at Saint Joseph's Table will be served here on Sunday, March 15, from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. The chef is our own inimitable David Page. You know the food will be excellent! Get your tickets early and save a couple bucks on the price.

The actual Feast of Saint Joseph is Wednesday, March 19. This coincides with our Lenten adult education series, Spaghetti & Spirituality and the solemn closing of Quaranta Ore di Adorazione Eucaristica (Forty Hours Devotion). We will have a Solemn High Mass in the Extraordinary Form that evening at 5:15 p.m. Plan ahead to attend.

Our very popular adult education series for Lent, Spaghetti & Spirituality, begins Wednesday. Mass is at 5:45 p.m., then a simple spaghetti dinner downstairs, followed by our speaker. Don't forget we have Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament all afternoon preceding the Mass. Come early for some quiet time before the Lord.

We start the 2009 series with Terek Saab. His topic and credentials are listed elsewhere in the bulletin and on the colorful flyers in the back of church. I suppose many people will recognize him since he was on television's The Apprentice. If you're not signed up on the sheet in the vestibule, please call the parish office to let us know you are coming. It's imperative that we plan ahead food-wise.

I would like to remind everyone that Spaghetti & Spirituality is designed only for those who have reached at least high school age. Out of respect for those who come, we ask that no one bring younger children. Again, I will be blunt. Some parents think there are rewards in heaven for dragging little kids with them wherever they go. There are not. Staying home with younger children and not being able to do, see and hear everything you want (including spiritual events) is part of the sacrifice of being a good parent.

Lent began Ash Wednesday. Lent has three particular facets: almsgiving, prayer, and penance.

Almsgiving is very simply giving our financial sacrifices to those who are in need. Each weekend during Lent we will have a second collection to remind us of the need for almsgiving. This weekend it is Black and Indian Missions here in the U.S. Next week the second collection is for Aid to the Church in Central and Eastern Europe. Second collections are opportunities for us to give concrete witness to our concern for the universal Church.

Prayer is essential for the observance of Lent. On Page 2 of this bulletin is the schedule of additional Masses and services for Lent. We will have two Masses every single day, at least two opportunities for confession, and the Way of the Cross after both Masses every Friday.

Try to attend some extra Masses on weekdays during Lent. In addition to what we offer here in the parish, don't forget time for personal prayer: Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament on Wednesday afternoons, the rosary, reading the Bible, devotional prayers.

Friday is First Friday. Try to attend Mass. So far this week, attendance at daily Mass and the Way of the Cross has been fair. But it's still nothing to write the Vatican about. Please try to attend daily Mass as often as you can through the week. The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass is the perfect prayer.

Penance is also essential during Lent. And not just during Lent. As noted in the bulletin last week, we fast (don't eat between meals) on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. We abstain from meat on all Fridays in Lent.

This also includes receiving the Sacrament of Penance. Lent calls us to go to confession. Keep in mind that confessions are heard at Holy Rosary Church before each Mass seven days a week.

Informed Catholics Know: Time magazine had an article a couple weeks ago about the so-called "Freedom of Choice Act" (FOCA). The point of the article is that we Catholics and others have overreacted. Time insists that our campaign to flood the nation's lawmakers with requests not to vote for FOCA was unnecessary. Time reports that FOCA is not being introduced in Congress, there were actually no plans to do so, and that it would never pass since it is so controversial.

Well, then why did President Obama tell Planned Parenthood on video in the summer of 2007 that one of the first things he would do as president would be to sign FOCA once it is passed? The Planned Parenthood audience gave him rousing applause. This video is easily obtained on the Web.

The point is that the average Catholic is simply not that stupid. The elements of FOCA that are so objectionable and controversial are already becoming law. For example, the expanded State Children's Health Insurance Program (SCHIP) and other federally funded healthcare programs already accomplish some of FOCA's objectives.

Let me quote John Brehany, director and ethicist at the Catholic Medical Association. He says, "Pro-choice activists and policymakers may not choose to assault the right to life head-on with the 'Freedom of Choice Act' but rather will 'break it up' as part of the broader call for healthcare reform. More children will be deemed eligible for government funded abortion and contraception under SCHIP and Medicaid, which the states can offer without parental knowledge or consent."

The bottom line is: Evil is clever; evil knows how to sneak around. Evil plans to get tenets of the so-called "Freedom of Choice Act" made law piece by piece. Keep your eyes and ears open. We are not that dumb, are we?

Of one thing I am convinced; of one thing I am certain: Providence never fails!

Faithfully yours in the Providence that will not fail us,

Msgr. Joseph Schaedel
